JGWD Solutions is excited to announce some new things in 2016. We would like to start with the new design of our newsletter, to better align with industry standards we have a new look for our online newsletter as seen here. Second JGWD Solutions wants to announce that we are now live on Yelp. That's right we have expanded our social media presence by teamed up with Yelp to gain the competitive edge of obtaining realtime customer feedback. With that being said visit Yelp today and let us hear from you.

President's Message

It is Spring and the 2015 calendar year has come to an end. The year is moving fast, four months in WOW.

For this edition I would like to share our latest testimonial from Kaitlyn Jones Film Director-The Last Night

"I was very excited to work with JGWD Solutions to create my website.

The entire process was easy and seamless, any changes I suggested were made immediately, and information was easy to communicate.

Communication is a huge thing for me, and the communication regarding this website and working with JGWD has been top notch." Click Here for more Testimonials.

Open Discussion on Facebook:

We all love our technology, but can too much technology be damaging to human behavior? I encourage you to explore how you can make a difference. You can share your thoughts on our "can too much technology be damaging to human behavior."
